

"Can You Remember Your Grandmother's Voice?"

K E Y W O R D S

ACROSS

- 3 Bring to one's mind an awareness of someone or something that one has seen, known, or experienced.
- 5 Transfer data from one device (like a computer) to another computer to another.
- 6 Recorded, transmitted, or reproduced sound.
- 8 The principal method of human communication, consisting of words used in a structured or conventional way. Words conveyed by speech, writing, or gesture.
- 10 The sound produced in the larynxes of multiple persons used to make speech or
- 11 To bring something into existence.
- 13 Pictures made using a camera.

DOWN

- 1 Things remembered from the past; recollections.
- 2 The FamilySearch online pedigree chart with person pages for each person. Used for documenting ancestors.
- 4 A piece of printed or electronic matter that provides information or evidence or that serves as an official record.
- 7 Persons from whom one is descended.
- 9 Accounts of people and events told or written down.
- 12 Interactive structured information which can be downloaded by a user to a mobile device.